PRINCIPAL'S POCKET OF PEACE

MRS. AMY LAQUERRE

Heavenly Father,

We thank you for the opportunities we have had to learn and to teach, to inspire and to be inspired. May the experiences we have shared during this month continue to resonate within our hearts and minds, guiding us as we move forward on our educational journey.

Bless our teachers and staff, who have poured their time, energy, and passion into the education and well-being of our students. Bless our students, who have worked diligently and persevered through their studies. May they carry the lessons they have learned with them always.

In your name, we pray.

Amen.

WEEKLY ANGEL HIGHLIGHTS

Pre-K 3: We practiced our concert songs in the Gym for our for our last day of school ceremony. We enjoyed our pajama and pizza celebration today with Pre-K four in their classroom.

Pre-K 4: We learned about God's Creation in Religion. They also visited Grade one to see their butterflies as they are a part of God's Creation. They also had their PJ & Pizza party!!

Kindergarten: In Kindergarten, they worked on their vowel sounds and single number subtraction.

Grade 1: First grade hatched 3 butterflies this week. We will be releasing them into the wild with Kindergarten and Second Grade on Tuesday.

Grade 2: Second graders had fun working with the third graders this week to unscramble difficult spelling words!

Grade 3: Grade three finished their zoo projects earlier this week! What an amazing job they did! Their posters are on display in the hallway outside their classroom!

Grade 4: Grades four and five joined together to tour the State Museum and the Capitol. We had a mock debate with Senator Kissel!!

Grade 5: Grade five did a nice job with social studies work - they had a wonderful discussion about the Road to Independence.

Grade 6: In Literature class, the students explored more Literary devices including: Antithesis, Direct Address, Enumeration and Repetition.

Grade 7: In Religion class, students learned about Catholic Social Teachings.

Grade 8: In Literature class, students explored the reasons why it is important for us to read, ponder, discuss and write works of poetry, novels, theatrical works and screenplays.
